

Wilma Erasmus graduated from the University of Pretoria in 1982 with the Diploma in Physiotherapy and received her MSc Physiotherapy from the University of Witwatersrand in 2012. She is owner of Erasmus Physiotherapists Inc. in Witbank South Africa and is still clinically involved in the treatment of hospital and outpatient patients. Since 1995 she has been involved in various portfolios of the South Africa Society of Physiotherapy (SASP). From chairman of the Private sector (PhysioFocus) to the President of the SASP. She is currently the PhysioFocus Liaison Officer. She lectures on various subjects ranging from practice management, cardio-pulmonary management and ethics. She is the current Chairman of the International Private Physical Therapy Association (IPPTA), the official subgroup from private practice of WCPT. She is dedicated to ethical, principle leadership and sharing of knowledge.

Samantha Dunbar received her BSc Physiotherapy (Honours) from the University of Witwatersrand in 1999 and her MSc Physiotherapy from Stellenbosch in 2009. She is the owner of Samantha Dunbar Physiotherapists and Biokinetics Inc. with several clinics in the west side of Johannesburg, South Africa. She has been a member of the PhysioFocus committee since 2009 (representing the private sector of the South African Society of Physiotherapy). She is currently Deputy Chairlady of the PhysioFocus committee. She represented PhysioFocus on the National Executive committee from 2011 to 2018 as the Chair of PhysioFocus. She represented the SASP as the member organisation representative on IPPTA (2011-2018) and is the current secretary for IPPTA.

Donna Hennig graduated from University of Alberta with BScPT in 1979. She owned her own physiotherapy practice until 2015 and is currently working as a consultant in private practice. She is extensively involved in both the provincial and national professional physiotherapy organizations in Canada. She is the Canadian MOR for IPPTA and the Vice-Chair of IAPTAP. She is currently teaching animal rehab in Canada.

Pam Simpson is the Vice Chairman of IPPTA having been a representative to IPPTA meetings as the Chairman of Physio First, the organisation of Private practitioners in the UK for 7 years. As Chairman of Physio First Pam lead the implementation of a quality assurance scheme in MSK practice for members based on the third-party analysis of data collected via a validated standardised data collection tool.

Pam is passionate about the global move towards private physiotherapy being purchased based on demonstrable quality.